WP. 21. g. 42/41

April 11, 1786:

To all Maſters and Commanders of Veſſels,

That have Buſineſs to tranſact at the Cuſtom-houſe, Ulverſtone.

THIS is to acquaint them, that Mr. Birch, Collector and Deputy Cuſtomer, has refuſed to collect the Deputy Searcher's Fees. John Bankes, Tide Surveyor, is appointed to that Office, and has given full power to the different Coaſt Officers, to collect and receive the after mentioned Fees; (the Cuſtomer's Fees for Cocket and Bond is 10*s*. 10*d*.½) all Veſſels outwards under Bond 1*s*. 4*d*. coaſting Veſſels with Coals or other Merchant Goods inwards 1*s*. foreign outwards 4*d*. foreign inwards in Ballaſt 4*d*.

KENDAL: PRINTED BY W. PENNINGTON.